WEBSTER COLLEGE

Live as your own soul tells you you ought to live.
Listen to what others have to say, good and bad,
about what you ought to do and then do as your own soul, your own heart, your own self tells you.

.....Carl Sandburg

The soul unfolds itself,
like a lotus of countless petals.

"When you wake up in the morning, Pooh," said Piglet at last,
"what's the first thing you say to yourself?"

"What's for breakfast?" said Pooh.

"What do you say, Piglet?"

"I say I wonder what's going to happen exciting today?" said Piglet.

Pooh nodded thoughtfully
"It's the same thing," he said.

I have often stated publicly that persons and institutions must be free to grow, that neither must be owned by the other . . .

... in recent years,
every step we have taken at Webster College has been made with this conviction in mind.

“Would you tell me, please, which way I ought to go from here?”

“That depends a good deal on where you want to get to,” said the cat.

“I don’t much care where . . . ,” said Alice.

“Then it doesn’t matter which way you go,” said the cat.

“ . . . so long as I get somewhere,” Alice added as an explanation.

“Oh, you’re sure to do that,” said the cat, “if you only walk long enough.”
